The Law Society of Hong Kong

Cantonese opera was officially inscribed onto UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity in 2009, making it the first item of the world intangible cultural heritage in Hong Kong. With the assistance of the West Kowloon Cultural District Authority (“WKCD”), veteran speakers from the industry have been invited to share stories behind the stage curtains. Participants may also have the rare opportunity of trying on Cantonese opera costumes. Details of the event are as follows:

Date:       Saturday, 13 October 2018
Time:       3:30 pm  Registration
            4 pm to 5 pm  Demonstration and sharing by Ms. Li Pui Yan, Cantonese opera artist
            5 pm to 7 pm  Networking drinks (light refreshments are available and each participant is entitled to two drinks.)
Venue:      Campfire, 5/F, Remex Centre, 42 Wong Chuk Hang Road, Wong Chuk Hang (2-min walk from Wong Chuk Hang station Exit A1. Please click here for location map.)
Speakers:   Ms. Li Pui Yan, Cantonese opera artist
            Ms. Ms Joanna C. Lee, Cultural Consultant
Content:    Ms. Li Pui Yan, an American-born Cantonese opera artist, was introduced to the traditional Chinese art form during her childhood. The sharing session will reveal her fascinating adventures in the world of Cantonese opera from her training and professional career as dan (female role) to her strong commitment to passing on the art form to younger generations. She will also share anecdotes and the challenges she has faced in her career. In addition, she will introduce the costumes and make-up styles of sheng (male role) and dan, as well as the singing styles and performing techniques used in Cantonese opera.
Language:   English
Fees:       $230 per head
